Beavers Help Defeat Themselves, 4 To 1; Rogan Huris a Good Game

By ANDREW PARRELL

In an in and out game, marred by bad play but featured by some fine work, the Twenty-fifth Infantry defeated the Portland Beavers at Schofield yesterday afternoon, 4 to 1. Of three games played the soldiers have taken two. Errors, bases on balls and a balk figured in the Twenty-fifth's runs. Rogan pitched a pretty game. holding the Beavers to four hits and fanning seven, but he came within an ace of losing in the ninth, when the bases were filled with one down. Moore took a hot line drive from Fisher's but for the third out. The hit looked like a three-bugger at least. In headwork the Beavers were dis tinetly off color. Pitchers Higher and Schatzlein were the principal offenders. Offsetting this was some fast fielding by First Baseman Hawkins, of the Twenty-fifth, Third Baseman Pinelli of the Beavers, Left Fielder Wolfer of the Beavers and Right Fielder Goliah of the Twenty fifth.

The Beavers scored first, getting run in the second. Williams hit a high bounder over second and went to third on a passed ball. He scored on Stumpt's pretty single to left. Stumpf stole second, but the next three men went out in order.

Balk Is Costly Some weird play gave the Twenty Higbee, who started in the box for the Beavers, walked Johnson. Go linh sacrificed to Higbee, who and time to eatch Johnson at second, but three vildly, Johnson taking third and Golinh second. Crafton bunted a fly into Highee's mitt, and Hawkins flied to Williams. Moore drove in Johnson with a single to right. Higher there upon balked to first, letting Goliah in and advancing Moore, and followed this by walking Fagin. Smith touled to Pinelli for the third out.

Rogan walked in the third with one down, but was doubled when Rodgers took Johnson's line drive near second. In the Beaver fifth Pinelli was safe as first when Johnson dropped the third strike. O'Brien was safe on Moore's high throw, which Hawkins climbed into the air after, making the prettiest play of the day, which he completed by catching Pinelli at third. Pinelli having taken second on th

A Comic Error For the Wreekers, the fifth brought two more runs. With two down, Schatzlein, who had succeeded Higher in the fourth, walked Swinton. Rogan singled to left, advancing Swinton. Wolfer jockeyed with Swinton on second and three wildly to Rodgers, Swinton taking third. Schaltzlein followed with a comic error. He chased Rogan back to first, which was unguarded, and threw the ball into the desert air liwinton scoring. Rogan scored on Johnson's single

Two Down and Bases Full The ninth gave enough thrills for the waited for four wide ones. Rogan was chally, although he made Stumpf fly to Smith. Wolfer singled to right, filling whole game. Rodgers led off with a the bases. Marshall batted for Pinelli, who had fanned three times, but he With two down and the bases full, Fisher batted for O'Brien. Moore was out of position, being al most on top of third, and needed two steps to get in front of Fisher's screaming drive. Except for this, which was tuck or unusually elever playing for the batter, the Beavers tion of the Inter Island Steam Naviprobably would have tied the score Sticks the First One Over Rogan had a good head yesterday. Three times of four the first ball to the batter was straight as a string, over the heart of the plate, and the Beavas much as possible. He said: ers, mistakenly waiting him out, found themselves in a hole. He had plenty of curves and worked the corners well, hut a change of pace would have helped him a lot. Except for their wildness and errors, the Beavers' pitchers showed well, and they were not hit he would place his resignation with the use speed, as Highee and Schatzlein did, but served up slow, wide curves, Inter-Island case, which gave the Wreckers trouble, al. "I am resigning which gave the Wreekers trouble, al. "I am resigning as chairman of the Since her sale to Comyn. Mackall in though they did get two hits in the public utilities commission." Forbes terests she has been reported to have extra-base hits,
